Cambridge Open Access

Publish Open Access

with support from your institution

1. Choose the journal that best fits your work on Cambridge Core

2. Follow the instructions on your journal's homepage to submit your manuscript*

   * Eligibility is based on the corresponding author's affiliation

3. Upon acceptance, choose Open Access and select a Creative Commons license

   This will determine how readers can use your article. Your funder or institution may require you to select a particular Creative Commons license, e.g. CC-BY.

4. Receive confirmation from our partner Rightslink® that your OA funding has been covered.

   Your institution has pre-paid for OA publishing and charges will be automatically waived†. Confirmation will come from our partner Rightslink®.

   † Final approval for funding may be determined by your library.

5. Once published, promote your research!
