

NORDIC MIGRATION RESEARCH

Engaging migration: Community and collaboration in restrictive times

The 23rd Nordic Migration Research conference

Södertörn University, Sweden on 12-14 August 2026

The conference explores the opportunities and obstacles for multicultural society by highlighting how communities, authorities and civil society intersect in local everyday life: How are the rights and experiences of migrants and minorities shaped, and what social, cultural and political factors influence their living conditions? The theme highlights both barriers and possibilities for collaboration, resilience, and social justice in an era of increasing restriction.

Confirmed keynote speakers:

Gloria Ladson-Billings, professor emerita, FBA, University of Wisconsin-Madison
Philip Lalander, professor i socialt arbete, Linnéuniversitetet
